STARDUST

An interactive preschool show where a live-action host (Clay) and an animated mudpuppy salamander named Stardust visit worlds in the Milky Way to help the locals learn science. The show centers on empowering children, treating them as intelligent, and encouraging active participation through pauses that allow viewers to solve problems.

Alongside Stardust and Clay, the show features animated friends like Rocket, Telescope, Halley the Comet, and Gravity the Dog.

STARDUST

The protagonist and a mudpuppy salamander. She lives in Rocket with her friend Clay. She is always excited to explore the galaxy with the viewers and learn new things. She speaks by repeatedly saying “twinkle.” She'll even tell yes by nodding or no by nodding side to side. To set an adventure of the day, she would leave glitter on the screen. She was born on a cosmic creek called Salamander Creek with her sister StarPower and other salamanders.

VOICE: Claire Kepple (she/her)

CLAY (Billy Clayton Dubois)

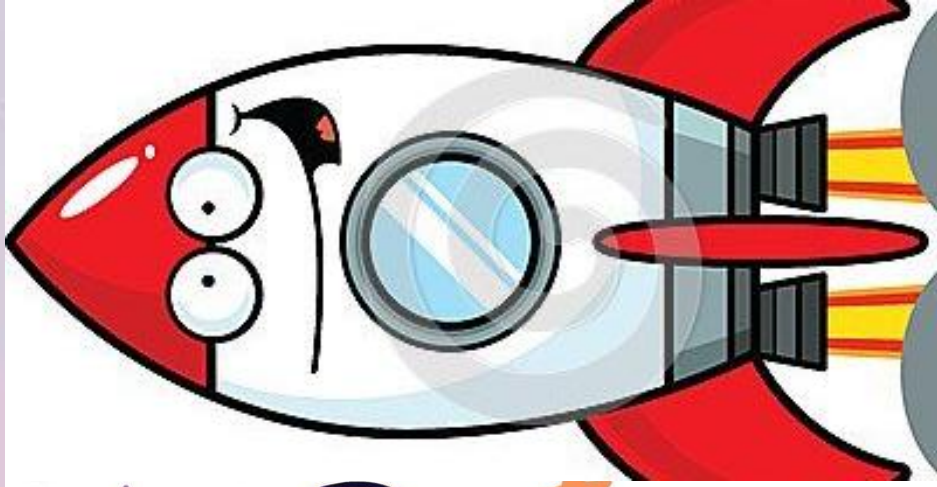
Born on the planet Ceramia, Clay is the friendly, enthusiastic partner of the animated salamander Stardust. He engages directly with viewers to visit new worlds around the galaxy, singing the zoopity jingle and getting answers from sentient tools, like Rocket and Telescope. Clay is known for his curious, earnest personality, and for being an optimistic guide to preschoolers.

CAST: Xavi Soto Burgos (he/him)

ROCKET

A sentient rocket ship who takes Stardust and Clay around the Milky Way.

VOICE: TBD



TELESCOPE

A sentient scope who can help Clay and the viewers find whatever they are looking for.

VOICE: TBD

HALLEY THE COMET

A sentient comet who grants a wish if anything goes awry.

VOICE: TBD

StarPower!

STARDUST + STARPOWER!

Stardust + StarPower! is a live-action/animated educational series where an interstellar mudpuppy salamander named Stardust and her giant axolotl sister StarPower leave glitter to help her human companion Aurora, sidekick Ray, and the viewers explore the universe. They also use their powers to save worlds in trouble.

Fictional (within Solid, Liquid, and Gas series)
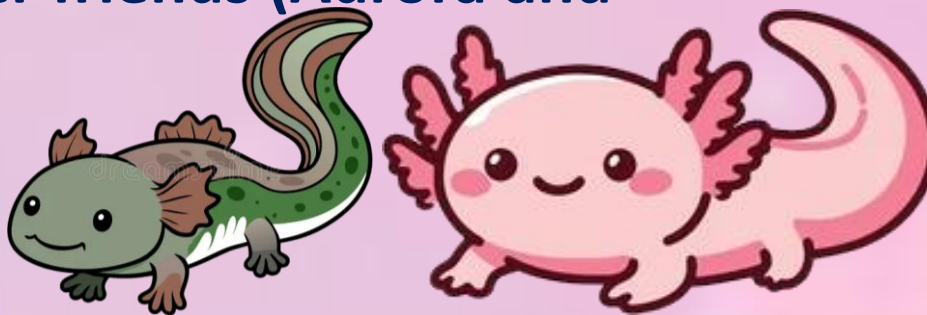
STARDUST (1999–2006) follows Stardust, an animated cosmic mudpuppy, as she leaves glittery trails to help Clay and the viewers navigate the galaxy.

STARPOWER! (2026–2029) follows Stardust's bigger axolotl sister, StarPower, who uses her powers with the help of Stardust, her explorer friends (Aurora and sidekick Ray), and viewers to save planets in trouble.



STARDUST

A cosmic green mudpuppy and StarPower's little sister who uses her powers to leave glitter for her space explorer friends to find their way through the planets or comets they are visiting.

STARPOWER

A cosmic pink axolotl and Stardust's bigger sister who uses her powers to help comets, planets, and stars that are in trouble. She can make herself bigger than stars.
